2. Presidential Classroom. Mr. Fisher said that this is the fourth year that the Agency has participated in the Presidential Classroom Program. 1969	0EV4A was the pilot year. That year an	25X1A represented CIA. The program managers were so favorably impressed with participation that each year since 1969 we have been requested to	T 25X1A provide a candidate. Our representatives for 1970 and 1971 were from the Office of Finance and from the Office of Security, res-	25X1A pectively. This year our representative is from the Office of Personnel. The program runs from 7 February through 25 March. The first	20/1/week is dedicated to orientation and preparation for the instructors. During the next six weeks, different groups of high school juniors and seniors from all over the country spend one week in Washington listening to presentations by members of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial Branches of the Government. About 2,000 students are involved this year. The students pay their own fare to Washington or are sponsored by civic organizations in their hometowns. The staff is primarily composed of detailees from Government agencies in town. OTR has provided instruction and briefing material for use by our representative. Quarters are provided for both students and instructors at the Shoreham Hotel.

3. Subjects for Discussion with Assistant Secretary Donelan. Mr.
Coffey asked Office Heads for subjects for discussion with Mr. Joseph Donelan, Assistant Secretary for Administration at State.

6. Mr. Coffey commented on a paragraph in the Office of Personnel weekly report. OP has just completed the screening of files on nilitary detailees to the Agency. The screening made possible the consolidation of 95 boxes of files into 23 boxes. Mr. Coffey indicated that there is a lesson here for all of us.	25X1A
7. Around the Table
Office of Security reported that the Intra-Agency Security Committee will convene to take a look at the problem of overclassification of documents in the Agency.
Office of Medical Services. Dr. Tietjen said he recently attended a three-day conference in San Francisco sponsored by HEWThe National Center for Health Services Delivery Systems. A wide variety of government and industrial organizations were represented at the conference. Presentations were given on a variety of subjects on the theme of how to provide more health services to more people through technology. Dr. Tietjen said the conference was useful but could have been condensed.
Office of Training. Mr. Cunningham said that last week OTR began the 34th running of the Midcareer Course. Among that group of students was the 1,000th to take the Midcareer Course. At a special presentation his name was drawn from a hat and he was given a large medallion by Mr. Colby.	and the second s
